

I think the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone privacy law protections. Because of my work hours it has allowed me to get some sleep without having phone calls. I would like to see the same thing for junk e-mails.